

May & June competitions in Redlands & Temecula kick off a fun summer.

Inland Empire Hunter Jumper Association (IEHJA) members successfully participated in two sanctioned shows during the months of May and June 2017. The venues included the May 21st Showcase Horse Show Series in Redlands and the June 10-11 Galway Downs County Series located in beautiful Temecula. IEHJA riders proved to be competitive in many Divisions with a big showing in the cross-rail classes at both shows. Read more about the individual shows and rider accomplishments:

Marci Mosconi judged the second of a four show series held at the Showcase training Stables in Redlands. This show is sanctioned by both IEHJA and the GSDHJA and attracted forty two horses to this one day event. New to this year's series is the Bill Strum Memorial $300 Cross-Rail Classic. The top ten high point Jr./Am Cross-Rail hunters will be invited to the Showcase Horse Show Series Year End Show in September. Riders have accumulated points at the March and May Series shows with an additional opportunity at the July 9th show. The winner will receive a trophy and 50% of the purse, second place will receive a leather halter and 30% of the purse and third place will be awarded 20% of the purse. Also new this year is the Southern California Thoroughbred Rescue TB Hunter Division. Open to registered thoroughbreds, riders compete at fence heights set at 2'3" and courses include oxers. Horses in this division are eligible for TIP points but not IEHJA points. The Southern California Thoroughbred rescue will present a monogrammed cooler to the series high point and a bridle to the reserve rider. Again, awards for this division will be presented at the series end of year show in September. The Cross-Rail Division proved to be the most popular with fourteen competitors. IEHJA recognizes the following riders for their accomplishments:

- Walk Trot Leadline: Champion Kiera Kuy; Reserve Chloe Riggs
- So Cal Thoroughbred Rescue Hunter Divisions: Champion, Jen Hallett; Reserve Jasmine Wheatley
- Schooling Cross-Rail Division: Champion Kaitlyn Pham; Reserve Jocelyne Reiche
