

Another outstanding season for Stanford Equestrian's collegiate, high school and middle school teams.

Coming off a third-place finish in 2018 (and 2017), Stanford's Hunt Seat Team went to the 2019 Intercollegiate Horse Show Association National Finals as an underdog with not a single team rider competing in a class they had shown in before in the post season. After three tough days of showing, the Cardinal demonstrated their strength and consistency by securing their third straight third place finish! In addition, junior Emma McLean won Stanford's 11th Reserve National Championship (in Team Novice Fences), and senior Kristen Blomstrom and junior Kelsi Okun each placed third in their respective Open Team classes (with Okun going on to finish fourth in her second-straight Cacchione Cup).

Stanford qualified a total of 11 athletes and won a record 13 top 10 placings--the most in Stanford history at one National Finals.
