

Long and ongoing career honored with induction into Show Jumping Hall of Fame.

The Show Jumping Hall of Fame recently held its annual induction ceremony at the Devon Horse Show in Pennsylvania. Among the four new inductees were Olympic veteran and current U.S. Chef d'Equipe, Robert Ridland; long-time announcer and horse show manager, Peter Doubleday; Olympic rider and coach and the first President of the USET, Colonel John W. "Gyp" Wofford; and Bold Minstrel, the only horse to win medals for the U.S. at the Pan American Games in two different disciplines.

The ceremony took place on Thursday evening May 31, just prior to the $250,000 Sapphire Grand Prix of Devon CSI4*.

Induction into the Show Jumping Hall of Fame is an honor bestowed annually upon select individuals whose contributions to the sport have set them apart and whose influence has had a significant impact on the sport of show jumping and the equestrian community. It is because of their talents, efforts, accomplishments, and what they have brought to the sport, that the Election Committee, comprising some of the nation's top riders, trainers and officials, voted them as the class of 2018.

July 2019 - Robert Ridland Honored

Written by CRM
Monday, 01 July 2019 03:11

